

Agenda

Thursday, September 6th • 10:00am – 3:00pm
Renaissance Orlando at SeaWorld

Welcome Tom Feeney – President & CEO, Associated Industries of Florida (AIF)
Rick Ratcliffe – Chair, Florida Section of the American Water Works Association (FSAWWA)
John Shearer – Moderator

Legislative Discussion State Representative Dana Young – The Benefits of New Reclaimed Water Legislation
State Representative Steve Perman – Agricultural Lands for Water Storage: Where Do We Go From Here?
State Representative Elizabeth Porter – Why Inter-WMD Cooperation is Necessary
State Representative Steve Crisafulli – Water Issues for the 2013 Legislative Session

Update on Federal Water Issue Brian McManus – Director of Federal Affairs, Executive Office of the Governor – *Federal Update

Key Note Luncheon Speaker Herschel Vinyard – Secretary, Department of Environmental Protection – Budget & the New Look of Water Management Districts

Numeric Nutrient Criteria Update Senator Chris Smith – What Does the New Numeric Nutrient Criteria Mean for Floridians?
Drew Bartlett – Director, Environmental Assessment and Restoration, Department of Environmental Protection – Update on Numeric Nutrient Criteria
David Childs – Hopping Green & Sams – Legal Update
John M. Urbanchuk – Technical Director, Environmental Economics, Cardno ENTRIX – How Will the New Numeric Nutrient Criteria Rules Affect Agriculture?
Paul Steinbrecher – Director of Environmental Permitting, JEA Utilities – How Will Utilities Cope With the New Numeric Nutrient Criteria Rules?

Consumptive Use Permitting Greg Munson – Deputy Secretary, Department of Environmental Protection – Proposed Changes To Consumptive Use Permitting (CUP) Process

A special thanks to Clark Mica and The Fertilizer Institute for hosting this year's Federal Update via Skype.